MEMORANDUM

Jan. 31, 1980

Dear Mom & Dad,

I just now read the article you sent on how to handle fleas. I have set it out for you two, as I thought you might like to try out all the suggestions when you come back! I'm sure our cat would appreciate it.

It snowed again last night, and of course Diane was delighted. School was cancelled, and she spent a long time out playing in the snow this afternoon with Danny and Kathy.

Waine and I went to a race last weekend to see Jimmy run. He did very well, however it was so cold we spent the whole time in the little coffee shop they had there. Afterwards Waine and I went over to Carolyn's for lunch.
She and her mother were so surprised when Waine asked for a check of cards, and then sat down and played solitaire.

Next Thursday Vickie and I are going to go to the Congressional Club where Joan Mondale is speaking, for the luncheon. There are a lot of interesting events coming up that we can go to there, mom.

Our next loop is just about ready, so I better go.

Love,

Mary
